Dear Stan:

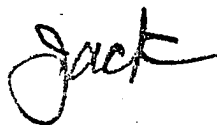

I simply cannot find the words which adequately express my gratitude and pleasure in Judy's and my having been included in the Ohio State dinner and speech. It was, of course, a genuine joy to see you again, and the occasion always will be an especially fond memory for us.

I particularly want to thank you for your many courtesies to Judy. The warmth, good manners and genuineness I have always associated with you came through most obviously in your many thoughtful actions in making Judy feel comfortable in such illustrious company.

Your speech and "rap session" were obviously overwhelmingly well received by both students and others privileged to hear you. The few rude dissenters marred an otherwise perfect evening; but the reaction to their rudeness by the vast majority of the students was encouraging indeed.

All in all, it was an event which Judy and I will cherish all of our lives. You are an exceptionally fine person, and our affection for you has no bounds.

Most sincerely,

JFF/g

P.S., Please express my gratitude were enormously appreciated.

whose kindnesses to us
